

Career Opportunity - Project Architect

July 2016

Located in downtown Indianapolis in the Fletcher Place Historic District, entheos ARCHITECTS is an architectural practice focusing on the planning, design and construction in the private, institutional market throughout the state of Indiana and surrounding states. Project types include places of worship, education (primary, secondary and higher ed), civic / community commissions, historic renovation / restoration and single-family residential.

Description

entheos ARCHITECTS has a career opportunity available immediately for a registered Project Architect to work closely with the Principals and clients in developing design solutions and producing contract documentation. Applicants must have a Bachelor's or Master's degree from an accredited university for architecture. Experience of at least 5 years as a licensed architect is required. Candidates must possess technical skills and the ability / attitude to work with groups in a creative, option-oriented environment.

Requirements

- ◆ Proficiency with AutoCAD in the production of Design and Construction Documents.
- ◆ Proficiency with SketchUp 3D modeling.
- ◆ Familiarity with the IBC and similar model codes.
- ◆ Excellent communication skills - graphic, written and verbal.
- ◆ Excellent time management and organizational skills.
- ◆ Ability to manage a project through all phases and to coordinate interdisciplinary project teams.
- ◆ Must be a self-motivated, responsible and resourceful team member.

Compensation

Competitive compensation, health insurance, vacations/holidays and free parking.

Contact

Please contact Michael Eagan at 317.951.9590 or email resume to eagan@entheosarchitects.com